DID YOU KNOW...?

The Sanctuary and the Alaksen National Wildlife Area are recognized by over 120 countries as a "RAMSAR" site (Wetland of International Importance).

FROM THE MOUNTAINS TO THE SEA, WETLANDS WORK

On February 2nd, all across the world, international organizations such as Wetlands International and the Ramsar Bureau work with local organizations to help promote greater understanding of wetlands and their significance to our lives. For more information about World Wetlands Day and the Ramsar Convention on Wetlands, visit websites at www.wetlands.org and www.ramsar.org.
